Ten Cents

The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Law Day is a Fine Day

For many years the communists attracted attention to their cause by making May Day — May 1 — a day of celebration. Eventually we Americans caught on. Our lawyers chose the same day, fittingly, to mark Law Day.

The two celebrations running side by side, give the best possible contrast to the differences between people who are free and people who are enslaved.

Law Day — oversimplified — is the day that Americans should show that they are proud that this is a nation of laws, not a nation of men.

Oversimplified also, is the Law Day idea that this nation can acknowledge that certain laws are bad and that they can be changed. This it not always possible with a nation ruled by bad men.

Parallel with Law Day should be the redefinition of the difference between democracy and republic since Law Day is a product of the democratic principle.

Actually, our form of government is that of a republic. There is often some confusion as to the difference between democracy and republic. Even dictionaries frequently add to the confusion. In truth, these words have shadings that overlap but democracy is from the Greek. It is concerned with the source of governmental power and the method by which it is exercised. It means rule by the people instead of rule by oligarchy or autocracy. When it was first tried it became a sort of mob rule and was looked down on.

Republic comes from the Latin, and designates only public affairs or common welfare without regard to how those public affairs are conducted or the common well-being achieved.

None of the Greek city states in which democracy originated ever had a republic, or anything resembling one.

Yet, the term has been almost universally applied and almost universally accepted as the republic form of government we enjoy in the United States. Democracy is the name given to some forms of governments that are absolute monarchies, oligarchies and some are representative democracies. What makes a democracy a republic in the minds of historians, statesmen, political scientists, and the informed public, is that a republic is ruled by established laws—whether set forth by statutes, by precedents, or by written constitutions—and not simply by the whim of a monarch, or of the oligarchy, or of a temporary majority of the voters.

"The rule of laws, not men," is one of the soundest of all copybook maxims. And it is the essence of the whole difference between a democracy and a republic.

Democracy is the rule of men not bound by laws—or tradition of precedent—whenever mob psychology can be built up by demagogues to support demagogues' disdain for the restriction of the law. A republic is rule subject to laws—and tradition or precedent—which laws cannot be changed except by due and deliberate process according to their own provisions.

But a republic, even if in the form of a monarchy or an oligarchy, does presuppose the ultimate responsibility of the governors to the governed. This gives the governed an inherent right and usually the opportunity, to make changes even in basic laws through which the republic functions.

In review, democracy is government by majority vote, whether direct in a pure democracy or by one step removed in a representative democracy. It provides no protection for the rights of minorities nor even the best interest of the majorities themselves, against the sudden whims of the electorate or the results of the voters' gullibility. And those who, through ignorance or greed or indifference, would pervert it to a world form that could eventually enslave them to leaders not of their own choice.

Concern about Law Day on Friday will be concern about our republic which provides more freedoms than any other form of government has ever devised.

BEAUTY AND THE CHAMBER — Pretty Sandra Sjogren, Miss Lemon Grove, looks over list of coming events at which she'll function as representative of the community at the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board meeting. Flanking Miss Sjogren is Wally Knutson, vice president of the chamber and Mrs. Joyce Foss, secretary.

Chamber Plans Cleanup; Youth Groups To Aid

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce meeting was graced with beauty Thursday with the appearance of the newest Miss Lemon Grove.

She is Sandy Sjogren, daughter of one of the trustees of the L.G. School District. She will represent the chamber, and the community in many civic activities for the next 12 months.

Wally Knutson sat in for president Robert Russell who was snowbound at Lake Arrowhead. Knutson, who is vice president, was able to announce six new members, and a $100 contribution from Gerry Mather, retiring president of the L.G. Lions club, for rehabilitation of a community direction sign on Highway 94.

Knutson also announced that the SD Arizona and Eastern railway had dropped its chamber membership and had raised the leasehold on the plaza from $40 to $60. Local contributions keep the strip clean and attractive.

Fire Marshall Ray Carmody, returning from a vacation to Oklahoma, sent word to the chamber that Lemon Grove had a more severe clean-up problem than any community he saw during his vacation trip.

Acting President Knutson then appointed a committee to meet this week with the marshal to develop a clean-up program that would have the backing of the local Fire Department. George Sperla volunteered the service of Pony League, Little League and Pop Warner members to aid in the clean-up. Sperla, operator of Village Golf shop, sponsors money-raising vents for the three youth groups.

Knutson also announced that a new meeting place would be sought for chamber meeting. The Burning T, site of current meetings, is converting the room to a bar room and grill.

Mix To Head Oldtime Days Kickoff Banquet Saturday

The Lemon Grove Oldtime Days Association will officially get this year's affair underway Saturday when they stage the gala Oldtime Days Kickoff Banquet at the VFW Hall.

There will be a No Host Cocktail hour at 6:30, followed by an old fashioned barbecue dinner and a program of lively entertainment.

Ron Mix, long-time star player with the San Diego Chargers will act as Master of Ceremonies. Mix will also be the Grand Marshal of this year's Oldtime Days Parade, May 23.

Mix will have his hands full Saturday introducing such talented acts as the El Cajon American Legion Auxiliary Kitchen Band, a real swinging group; Harold The Terrible, Lemon Groves own Muddled Mystic, who will astound one and all with his feats of magic; Sam Smith and his Dixie Land Band, well known in the area; The fabulous Levis and Laes Square Dance Group, performing in the Oldtime Days tradition; Lovely Sandi Sjogren, Miss Lemon Grove; and the stellar attraction of the evening, the renowned Lemon Grove Lemonettes, doing their sensational Can Can routine.

The Lemonettes have gained area fame for their entertaining antics in parades and are in demand for virtually every parade presented. Recently they were a smash in Ernie Meyers Worlds Worst Parade. This success was followed by an appearance in the Lakeside Family Fun Days Parade for which they were awarded a trophy.

The Lemonettes are scheduled to appear in the Armed Forces Day Parade and the Santee Parade in addition to our own Oldtime Days Parade.

The Can Can Routine of the Lemonettes will be a first. Previously the group has limited itself to parade activities. Those fortunate enough to have watched a rehearsal of the routine Monday in the VFW Hall were unanimous in their agreement that they "had never seen anything like it before."

The Lemonette Lovelies will kick their heels in high fashion as the climax to a fine evening of entertainment that will officially begin the festivities for the Oldtime Days Celebration scheduled for May 21, 22 and 23.

Tickets for the Saturday, May 2 Banquet may be obtained from Louise Warren at Warren Furniture, Dorman and Dorman, the Chamber of Commerce, Russell's Plumbing or from any member of the Oldtime Days Association. The VFW Hall is located on Imperial 3 blocks south of Broadway.

Move-in Slated For S.V. Trailer Park Tomorrow

Lamplighter One Mobile Estates, a new 270 lot community in Spring Valley, is nearing completion with the first "move in" scheduled for May 1, announced William Barclay, Project Manager for Mobile Housing Environments, the builder.

The new community, located at 10767 Jamacha rd., is designed for both family and adult living, with special recreation facilities for children. When fully completed and landscaped (which will be mid-June), Lamplighter One's facilities will include a large swimming pool, sauna baths, putting green, barbecue, two laundry areas, therapeutic pool and courts for tennis, basketball, badminton and shuffleboard.

A large, luxurious three wing recreation center has over one-quarter acres under roof. The ranch style building has a billiard room, a spacious carpeted lounge, comfortable recreation and meeting rooms, kitchen and pantry.

OLD LOOK — Ron Mix, former All-League tackle with the San Diego Chargers has changed his appearance since his playing days, but he'll still be Ron Mix when he MC's the Oldtime Days Kickoff Banquet.

DMV Crowding Expected Soon

The Department of Motor Vehicles announced last week that the local DMV offices are approaching a period of crowding, and that anyone trying to renew or secure a driver's license would be wise to apply at the more "lax" times of the week.

According to Robert Cozens, director of the Calif. Department of Motor Vehicles, the public usually crowds local offices late in the afternoon, and all day Monday and Friday.

The best time to go to the DMV, if you would like to avoid a long wait, is Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday mornings, and early afternoons.

Rain Total .15

The rainfall total so far this year continues to trail by about 50 per cent the total of last year.

Monday, only .15 of an inch fell although it appeared to be more.

According to Leon Anderson, local meteorologist, Monday's storm brought this year's total to 8.43 inches. Last year on this date the total stood at 16.10 inches.

Apr. 21 at 8:52 a.m. firemen went to the Leeper Noodle plant at 7636 Lemon ave. Cause of the call was an overheated vent fan motor, but there was no structural damage.

Double Sessions To Be Asked For Mt. Miguel High School

A citizens' committee agreed Monday that a temporary solution to the overcrowded problem at Mt. Miguel High School is to go on 'double sessions' next term.

School Principal Mel Grant said that "room simply doesn't exist for the 2,900 or more students anticipated at the school in the 1970-71 school year." This year's enrollment is 2,700.

He plans to ask the Grossmont Union High School Board to approve the plan at its May 4 meeting.

A committee of eight headed by Mrs. Shirley Littrell met with Grant to study the problem. Mrs. Littrell is Mt. Miguel PTA president for 1969-70 and 1970-71.

The committee approved a schedule that would provide classroom space for 2,100 students during the 7 a.m. to 12:30 session. These would be grades 10, 11 and 12.

800 first-year students would attend the 12:30-3:55 p.m. sessions. Lunch period would be open during three periods.

This would alleviate some of the crowding, Grant said. The school was built for 1,844 students and portables have been added to absorb the population pressure.

"Even the sewer line overflows," Grant told the group. "This happens in the cafeteria — which is the worse possible place."

The committee was called because the school staff wanted to get at the problem now, Grant said. It would take four years to provide permanent buildings if an expansion program was approved today.

Capacity Reached
Mt. Miguel was built in 1957. It was 10 students over its rated capacity after the first year, Grant said. Monte Vista was built in 1961 to relieve the

Freeway Routes To Be Studied

The potential generation of air and noise pollution by future freeways and their effects on surrounding communities will be thoroughly researched in all future freeway route location and freeway design studies conducted by the State Department of Public Works.

According to Director James A. Moe, the new requirements are the most encompassing environmental safeguards ever applied to a state highway construction program.

In each case, the study results will be presented at public hearings that precede all freeway route adoptions and major design decisions in California.

growth pressure but Mt. Miguel's population continued to grow.

Grant explained that there is no space left for establishing portable classrooms. The fire hazard level has been exceeded, Grant pointed out.

The suggestion that parking lots be converted to portable classrooms was turned down. "It would only exaggerate the situation," Grant said. "We are out of parking places now. It isn't logical to create greater auto congestion," he added.

Traffic situation in and around the school had become so noisy and congested that an efficient school system cannot be operated, he said.

The two-session arrangement will be the most economical to operate, Grant pointed out. "I think we can do it without providing duplicate staff and services," he said.

A parents' group offered to address and mail bulletins to parents of incoming ninth-graders this week in order to get the information to those concerned before Grant appears before the Grossmont Board of Trustees.

Four of the committee members agreed to field questions by phone concerning the proposed program. They are: Mrs.

Lillian Duncan, 466-4631; Mrs. Jerry Reinicke, 460-3515; Mrs. Shirley Littrell, 479-1834, and Mrs. Lillian Collette, 466-9087.

To reconstruct the Route 94 curve between Proctor Valley road and Maxwell road. It is located immediately east of Jamul. The modification is designed to provide the drivers with a better view of oncoming traffic. The Division will pay $91,000.

To reconstruct the Route 94 curve a short distance past the Dulzura Creek bridge. The location is approximately five miles east of Jamul. The modification is also designed to allow drivers a better view of oncoming traffic. The Division will pay $79,000.

Joe Rushing Retires

Biggest Family Sought

Those who feel they may qualify are urged to write a letter describing their family size and background and address it to "Disneyland on Parade" c/o San Diego International Sports Arena, 3500 Sports Arena Blvd., San Diego, 92110.

A few years later, Joe was transferred to the division of Public Works when it was formed. He stayed with that department until 1963 when Special District Services was set up.

CONRAD LEMON GROVE MORTUARY

STEEPLE'S ON — The steeple at Saint Philip's Episcopal Church was put in place last week with the help of two giant cranes. Construction work on the church is expected to be completed by the end of May, with dedication set for September 20. The Church, which arrived in Lemon Grove in January, was originally erected in San Diego, and was known at Saint Paul's. In 1948 it was moved to San Diego State College and was renamed Dunstan's. Last year, the State College Foundation awarded the church to the parish at Saint Philip's, and now the work is nearing completion.

Guarding Thoughts At Christian Science

The importance of guarding thought against the influence of evil suggestions will be stressed in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon to be read on Sunday, May 3.

Bible readings on the subject of "Everlasting Punishment" will include a warning by Jesus to "fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell."

One of the religious tenets of Christian Science stated in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy is: "We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin in the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out evil as unreal. But the belief in sin is punished so long as the belief lasts."

All are welcome to attend services starting at 11 a.m. in First Church of Christ Scientist, 7741 Pacific ave.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Some Spanish songs sound so romantic. Would you please translate one and explain the meaning of the words.

There are many beautiful songs in Spanish, but one that has remained a favorite to the Spanish-speaking world for over two decades is entitled "Cuando Se Quiere De Veras" which would be translated "When One Truly Loves."

"Quando" means "when" and "se quiere" is translated to "one loves." "De veras" is an easy way to say "of truth" or "truly." The first line of the song is the same as the title "Cuando se quiere de veras" for "When one truly loves."

The second line is "Como te quiero yo a ti." Como" means "as" and "te" means "you" in the objective form. "Yo quiero" is translated "I love." The next two words, "a ti" (to you), are repetitive and give emphasis to the one who is loved.

"Es imposible" (it is impossible) is the phrase that begins the next line. An endearment "mi cielo" (my heaven) then follows and might be translated as "my love." "Tan separados vivir" is the final phrase. "Tan" means "so" and "separados" is followed by "vivir" (to live).

In order that you may learn the word to this lovely Spanish song, the complete lyrics are listed and translated below. You may wish to sing along with the recorded voice that sings the song for you when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone. Try it now.

Miller See 'Strike Force' Deterrent To Drug Traffic In S.D. County

A "strike force" made up of federal, state, and local narcotics agencies is the only answer to the booming drug traffic in San Diego County, Ed Miller, candidate for district attorney, said Tuesday.

"We have lacked both coordination and teamwork between federal, state and local authorities in tracing and prosecuting major traffickers at the local level," Miller said.

"The development of a narcotics strike force would enable us to concentrate on developing cases against the two dozen leading narcotics, dangerous drug, and marijuana traffickers now operating in San Diego County."

These traffickers are highly organized, he added.

"We then would throw the normal rule book out the window and lack their activities just as we would any other organized criminal activity."

He said there is an overlapping of federal and local responsibilities in certain types of cases.

"We would prosecute each case through the district or the United States attorney, depending on how we can nail 'em best."

When he was United States Attorney, Miller developed many major narcotics cases, and, by cooperating with the state attorney general's office, was able to smash the largest heroin ring on the West Coast. More than 60 criminals were arrested and better than a million dollars (retail value) in pure drugs were confiscated.

"At the same time we're operating our strike force, the district attorney will assume a new role in joining with educational authorities and parents, in communicating with young people about the problems arising from the drug scene."

"The district attorney's office has not been doing this; I will."

73 YEARS AGO — Founders' Day celebrations are going on at San Diego State College this week end, celebrating the 73rd anniversary of the passage of a state bill in 1897 that created the State Normal School, parent institute of the present State College.

Many of the Founders' Day activities will honor the day's environmental theme — "The Bittersweet Land."

Lt. Governor Gets Advice On Drug Use

Recommendations on solutions to drug abuse problems in California were submitted by drug industry representatives to Lieutenant Governor Ed Reinecke last week at a meeting of the California State Chamber of Commerce in Sacramento.

The representatives recommended an accurate identification of those drugs most frequently abused and the sources of such drugs as an immediate short-term objective.

The results of such an effort would enable the State and the drug industry to take more effective steps to control abuse of those drugs identified.

Drug industry representatives recommended that specific attention should be given to problems involving mail order wholesaling, mail order prescriptions, thefts from interstate and intrastate shipments, theft or pilferage from drug warehouses, forged prescriptions, and trick and deceit in obtaining drugs from legal sources.

Matador Baseballers, Golfers Win Outings

It was a pretty good week for Mount Miguel High school sports last week, as the Matador baseball team rolled over El Cajon High, 13-0 and the golf squad squeezed out a 237-239 win over El Cajon.

Bob Gallagher and Ron Toozie put the muscle in the Matadors' attack, each connecting for doubles and driving in three runs, while right-fielder Art Taylor collected four singles in four trips, scored two runs and drove in another, as the horsehiders smashed the Braves Friday.

On the pitching end of the lopsided contest, Mike Smith tossed a four-hitter, striking out seven batters in as many innings, while walking only three.

Mount Miguel picked up four runs in the first inning, one in the second, four more in the third and four more in the fourth to collect a total of 13 runs on 12 hits. Five Matadors gained first on free passes.

Griffins Complete Undefeated Year

EL CAJON — This has been quite a year for Bob Larsen. First, last September, his Griffin cross country team went undefeated and won the Mission Conference Championship, and now, his track team has accomplished the same feat.

Replacing Ron Vavra for the 1970 track season — Vavra is on sabbatical leave in Sevilla, Spain — Larsen led the Griffin track team to the first undefeated season in the history of the school.

The 1967 Griffin squad finished with a 9-1 mark and was co-champions of the Pacific Southwest Conference, and the 1969 team was 6-1 and second in the PSC, but the 1970 team has gone all the way with the undefeated season and outright champions of the Mission Conference.

Monte Vista Golfers, 'Hiders Win On Friday

Monte Vista High put it all together on the baseball field and golf course Friday, and came away with impressive victories from both by belting Grossmont 5-1 and 379-420 respectively.

For the horsehiders, it was Jesse Bower twirling a four-hitter past the Foothillers,

For the Miguel golfers, Friday was a nice day at the Singing Hills Golf Course, as the Miguelites put a beautiful round of 38 by Tom Maddigan together with some less impressive scores to bounce by El Cajon by a mere two strokes.

Three of the five El Cajon duffers shot over 50, while only two Matadors failed to get in under the mark.

Little Leaguer Strikes Out 14 In No-hit Game

A no-hit, no-run effort by a boy pitching his first baseball game provided the highlight for initial week action in the 1970 Lemon Grove Little League season.

Mike Smith, 12, righthanded pitcher for Lemon Grove Lath and Plaster, struck out 14 and walked only one in a 3-0 victory over the Dodgers.

He did not allow a ball past the infield and faced the minimum of 18 batters in the six inning game. The player who walked was later thrown out attempting to score.

Smith's effort helped elevate his team into a first place tie with the Lions Club, both listing 2-0 records. The Lions opened their campaign with 9-2 and 19-0 decisions over Capri Tile.

First week activity in the league was limited to the Major division. Intermediate and Minor divisions and Clinic play begin this week.

while his Monarch teammates were busy giving him a run in the first and a run in the third. Monte Vista also added insurance runs in the fourth and fifth innings to sew up the win.

Paul Loop was the Monarch's big gun, belting a double and a single in four trips, and knocking in a run.

Although Bower's control was not the best — he issued six free passes — his over-pitching fastball and sharp curve netted him ten strikeouts, including five of the first eight men to face him.

At Cottonwood Country Club, the Monte Vista golfers showed a tough Foothiller team how to swing as Rob Vint toured the 18-hole course with an outstanding 73.

The other Monarch duffers checked in with rounds of 75, 76, 75, 80 and 81 to outclass rounds of 76, 83, 85, 86, 90 and 96, turned in by Grossmont golfers.

Scott McGangh Takes California Write-offs

Monte Vista Senior Scott McGangh has been named the top high school sports writer in the state write-offs sponsored by the Southern California Journalism Education Association, April 18.

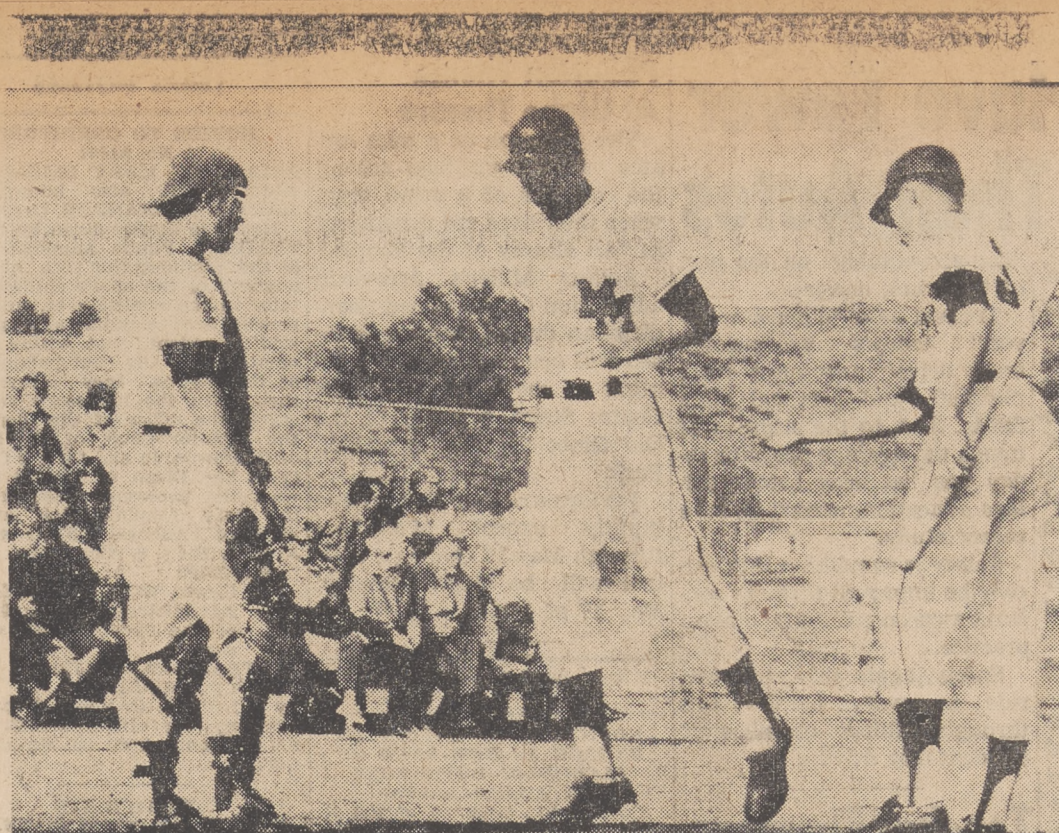

Scott, 17, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Jerrold McGangh of 10746 Melva rd., La Mesa.

During his years in journalism at Monte Vista, Scott has served as sports editor and editor of the school newspaper, The Royal Page, and as chief of the school's publicity outlet, the press bureau.

While he was editor of the paper in 1968-69, The Royal Page was named the county's best newspaper in judging by Sigma Delta Chi, professional newsmen's organization.

Scott has also served as school sports correspondent for local newspapers. He plans to major in journalism when he enters college next fall.

The state journalism write-offs took place in Anaheim, with approximately 50 participants who had placed in previously held county-wide competitions.

MATADOR MUSCLE — For the first half of the high school baseball season, Mount Miguel had a fine crew of pitchers, and a total lack of hitting power. But something happened to the Matadors, and it seems that scenes like the one above are occurring more often every week. Last week, the Matadors put enough swing into things to bomb El Cajon High, 13-0.

15 Kilometer Run Set For Sunday Morn

Long-distance runners from all over the country will gather at the Mission Bay Golf Course Sunday, May 3, at 11 a.m. for the annual National A.A.U. Senior 15 Kilometer Championships.

The event is sponsored by the San Diego Track and Field Association and the San Diego Recreation Department.

The run will be open to all registered amateur athletes of the A.A.U. for 1970, but high school track team members will not be eligible to compete.

Team entries will be limited to eight men. Awards will be made in open and veteran (over 40) divisions. Entry blanks are available at the Sports Office, San Diego Recreation Department, Balboa Park.

Expected to enter the event are Craig Sterling, San Clemente High's nationally ranked marathoner, Mission Bay marathon victor Mike Mahler of the Southern Cal Striders 1970 National A.A.U. marathon champ Tom Heinonen, now running for the San Diego Track Club, and former Lincoln High distance ace Otis Martin.

Last year's winner, Tom Bache, who holds the course record of 48:37.0, is out with knee problems and will not compete.

Nicknames For Padres Stick

From the "Big Train" to the "Splendid Splinter", from "Pec Wee" to the "Duke", from "Little Poison" to the "Little Professor" baseball spews an endless but mellifluous list of sobriquets.

The nickname is as much a part of the game as the hit-and-run and always more familiar to the fan.

Here are a few that have stuck with some members of the San Diego Padres, followed by explanations by the players:

SNIFFY (Ron Herbel): "I pitched in Candlestick Park for so many years that every time I went to the mound, I picked up a cold."

THE KID (Clay Kirby): "I look like one."

RABBIT (Jose Arcia): "It's got something to do with the way I run."

SNAKE (Pat Dobson): "They say it's because of my curve ball. I must be slipping. In high school they called me 'The Cobra.'"

THE BULL (Al Ferrara): "I run into a lot of walls chasing fly balls. Bulls run into a lot of walls chasing matadors."

SOUP (Dave Campbell): "What else?"

Opening Day Sunday

The Spring Valley Pony League has scheduled its "Opening Day" for Sunday, May 3 at 1:30 p.m. on the Santa Sophia Church grounds.

Ceremonies will be at 1:30 p.m. sharp, followed by the playing of two games, according to Mrs. Nancy Stevens, publicity chairman.

Robert W. Barker, El Cajon soft water dealer, was named 13th President of the Pacific Water Conditioning Association at the annual convention last week.

"Amazin' Mets" Invade Stadium Tomorrow Night

The Padres are planning an "amazing weekend" for the "amazing Mets."

The world champions arrive for four games, starting tomorrow night and the Padres consider it their private world series in the spring.

"We have something to prove and this is the time to do it," a Padre player said. "The quickest way to gain recognition is by beating the champs."

The Padres have never defeated the Mets in San Diego Stadium. They won only once last season and already have equalled that figure, whipping the Mets, 5-3, last week in New York.

But the next day the Padres fell victim to Tom Seaver's 19-strikeout, 10-in-a-row, record performance and they are eager for revenge.

Saturday will be Ladies Day, with all women receiving a discount on their tickets. It will also be the first of six free games for Padre Little Swinger members. Sunday is Senior Citizens Day and a huge Loyalty Day celebration is scheduled between the games of the double-header.

To a man, the Padres are prepared to strike back at a New York pitching staff that has taken delight in silencing San Diego bats.

In 12 games against the Mets last season, the Padres made only 19 runs but nevertheless managed to make every game a toss up to the end. Five of San Diego's eleven losses to New York in 1969 were by one run.

"There are many things that have given me encouragement," insists Manager Preston Gomez. "Specifically, the work of Dave Campbell at second base, the hitting of Clarence Gaston, the slugging of

Doctor Advises Athletes Watch Fad Food Diets

Athletes, whether they play for pro, college or high school teams, are warned by a consulting physician to be alert for foolish food fads perpetuated by some coaches.

Dr. Laurence M. Hursh, M.D., director of health services for the University of Illinois and a Dairy Council of California consultant, said coaches sometimes change their athletes' diet regimes because of the psychological effect.

"There are plenty of means of influencing a boy's frame of mind and stimulating motivation without messing around with his basic body metabolism," Dr. Hursh exclaimed.

"In fact, fooling around with food practices that are otherwise sound can make a person less effective," he said.

Dr. Hursh said food fads are frequently circulated in locker rooms. "Some coaches know nutrition," he said, "many don't. As a result, special restraints or special food products, especially on game day, are sometimes recommended to young players. In my opinion, advice to athletes that they use oxygen, or vitamins, or honey with their meals, or special medication is a lot of nonsense."

State College Spikers Face Santa Barbara

There's still a month and a half remaining in the collegiate track season, but the dual meet portion of San Diego State's schedule will come to a close this Saturday at Santa Barbara.

The Aztecs of coach Dick Wells will renew an old rivalry with Pacific Coast Athletic Association foe UC Santa Barbara on the Gauchos track at 1 p.m. State will be putting a 7-3 dual record on the line against a team they haven't met since 1964. At that time SDS won a 101-44 decision.

San Diego will also be out to keep its slate clean against PCAA rivals. The Aztecs have already whipped Cal State Long Beach and Los Angeles and won't meet Santa Jose State, Fresno State and UOP until the conference meet May 15-16 in Fresno.

The Gauchos feature some fine individual talent in Wayne Snyder (49.5 in the 440), 227-6 javelin thrower John Tobin, 9.6 sprinter Sunny Hatten and 45-7 triple jumper Jeb Burgess.

The Montezimans had a light weekend last week with only selected men competing in the Mt. SAC Relays.

State's distance medley relay team of Wes Williams, Clark Dimon, Tim Danielson and Bob Messina set a new school record of 9:48.6 to beat a five-year-old mark by more than five seconds.

Arnie Robinson qualified for the NCAA championships in June by turning in a 24-6 long jump effort. Wes Williams also registered a season's best in the 440 LH with a 51.0.

'69-'70 Successful Says Coach Max McNab

For the San Diego Gulls, 1969-70 was another successful season, despite the disappointment of losing out to the Vancouver Canucks in the semi-final round of the Lester Patrick Cup playoffs.

"Most everyone had as good a year as possible," said Gulls' General Manager Coach Max McNab. "We don't analyze playoff performances individually, we look at it on a team basis."

"We played hard in the playoffs, but we weren't quite there. Vancouver played well

Democratic Caucus To Support Mills

The Senate Democratic Caucus announced in Sacramento that it has unanimously endorsed State Senator James R. Mills, D-San Diego, for reelection.

The announcement was made by Ralph C. Dills, Senate Democratic Caucus chairman. Mills, who was first elected to the State Senate in 1966, has served as Democratic Caucus chairman in both houses. He served in the Assembly from 1960-66.

HAPPY WINNER — Don Mathews of El Cajon looks happy after a limited stock trophy dash win. Queen Patti Gehres is from La Mesa. Supers and limiteds run every Saturday night at Cajon Speedway.

Bullen Wins Main; Hale Takes Second

Two time super stock car champion, Russ Bullen of Bonita came from 14th place to cop the flag before another sell-out crowd at Cajon Speedway.

Bullen became the 3rd main event winner in the first three races by grabbing the lead on the 12th lap, taking the lead from Bob Chambers of El Cajon.

The "yellow-filled" 30 lap main started out with a wild spin by Ray Swentkofske on the first lap.

The yellow dropped again on the 4th lap as Bill Bramley of El Cajon lost a wheel on the back straight.

Another yellow flashed when Bill Brady spun in the north turn and the red stopped it all on the 11th lap as John Borneman of El Cajon went head long into the starting line wall. Borneman was removed and taken to the hospital for overnight observation.

The 12th lap was a wheel to wheel duel between Chambers and Bullen with Bullen edging Chambers for the lead.

Russ held on through three more yellows to win by 3 lengths, tying Ed Hale of Lemon Grove for the point lead.

Hale came from 15th spot to take second. Tex Kimbrell of Imperial Beach set a new fast time record of 18:95.

Good Fishin' For Local Men

Four Lemon Grove men were among a crew of 16 on a fishing boat charter trip Saturday in which more than a ton of rock cod were caught, according to Erlend Anderson.

The men were aboard the New Seaford and caught the fish at the 60 mile bank.

Local men with Anderson included Dr. Don Johnson, Ben Kerfoot, and Tony Lopez.

RIDING FENCE — Two Lemon Grove girls (l-r) Eva Budzinski and Tammy Anderson were among the 800 girls who attended Camp Wolahi last summer. Registration for the 1970 sessions at the San Diego County Council of Camp Fire Girls' resident facility in the Cuyamaca has opened. Covering some 60 acres of wooded land, the camp is located 55 miles from San Diego near Cuyamaca Dam.

'Wilderness Wonders' To Draw More Than 1,600 Girl Campers

Some 1600 girls are expected to register for resident and day camp with the San Diego County Council of Camp Fire Girls. Registration is now open for the seven summer sessions at Camp Wolahi and the 11 day camps operated by the local council.

Mrs. Judy Miller is director of the resident camp facility in the Cuyamaca. Young women college graduates or students are hired as counselors, unit directors, specialists, and waterfront directors. Mrs. Miller said that in-camp staff training is scheduled for June 28 through July 3. Camp Wolahi will open July 5 with sessions lasting through August 30. All sessions are one week except for an 11-day session from July 26 to August 5.

Located near Cuyamaca Dam, Camp Wolahi covers some 60 acres of wooded land and has a heated pool for instruction and free-time swimming. The programs for girls aged 7 through 17 are geared to the interests and abilities of each age group. Daily activities include swimming, hiking, campcraft, nature lore, singing, creative play, and boating.

Living arrangements are a part of the planned age progression at camp. The housing includes cabins, tent platforms, Adirondacks, teepees, and a hogan.

Blue Birds (girls entering third and fourth grades) will be Squirrels at Camp Wolahi and live in cabin groups of eight girls and one counselor. Andrea Gerhardt, Point Loma, will be the unit director.

First year Camp Fire Girls (girls entering fifth grade) live in tent platforms and are called Thunderbirds. Tricia Treppa, Point Loma, will be the unit director.

Warriors are girls entering the sixth grade and they live in Adirondacks (three-sided block buildings). This unit usually participates in an overnight outside the camp. Caye Morrisette, Escondido, will be the unit director.

Junior Hi members, Teepees, live in authentic Indian teepees and cook most of their meals outdoors. Ginny Oaks, San Diego, will be the unit director.

Wilderness camping is offered for Horizon Club members who do their own planning and cooking. Wilderness campers live in their own unit high above the central camp. This unit will be open for the fourth, sixth and seventh sessions.

A special Counselor-In-Training Course is offered to girls who have completed their sophomore year of high school and who are interested in becoming counselors. Linda Palmer, San Diego, will serve as CIT director. Martha (Marty) Phillips, La Mesa, will be program director for the Wolahi sessions.

District day camps operate for eight days (Monday through Friday) from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Day camps are staffed by volunteer mothers who take special training for camping. There is a ratio of one counselor to each eight campers. The information telephone number is 233-3157.

Truckers Have Fewer Accidents Than Autos

Motor vehicle accidents continue to occur at an alarming rate! The number of persons killed or permanently injured each year is staggering. Billions of dollars are lost in accidents involving property damage alone. The total is almost incomprehensible: More than ten billion dollars annually since 1966, or nearly two per cent of the Gross National Product!

Yet, the organized trucking industry — with approximately 16.4 per cent of the registered vehicles in the United States — has vehicles involved in only 11 per cent of the accidents, according to the National Safety Council.

Automobiles, on the other hand, account for nearly 86 per cent of the vehicles involved in accidents, while having a substantially smaller proportion of the registered vehicles.

There are many reasons why professional truck drivers have far fewer accidents than any other group of highway users.

Their safety record is a major aspect of the trucking industry — and deserves particular attention during National Transportation Week, May 10-16.

Motor carrier policy is based on the "last clear chance" theory. Regardless of whether or not the truck driver is at fault — if there is the remotest chance, right up to the second of impact — that a driver could have avoided an accident by some type of evasion action, the accident is recorded as a preventable accident on the driver's record!

Yet, a study of 104,000 truck-car accidents has shown that 70 per cent of all accidents involving trucks — and, this is important, 80 per cent in cases of fatal accidents — were

"non-preventable" on the part of the truck driver. Trained as a "defensive driver," today's professional truck driver must meet strict physical and personal standards. And, to the surprise of many, the average operator today has "at least some" college education, according to a recent study.

Safety is something that can only be improved through constant awareness and repetitive practice.

Safety, again this year, will ride in every truck's cab through millions of miles of accident-free driving.

Teacher Shortage Over in District

The shortage of teachers is over.

At least there is no shortage of professionals in the Lemon Grove Elementary School District.

This was revealed Monday night at the regular school board meeting when former fifth grade teacher William Whitley asked, by letter, for an extension of a leave granted him a year ago to take a job with the Jamul-Las Flores School District. He is principal and assistant to the superintendent.

The request was denied after L.G. District Assistant Superintendent Sam Solleder reported that holding Whitley's post open might create a paid position that is not needed by the District.

He said that all positions are filled and that 12 to 15 applications are made for every vacancy.

A couple of years ago the District "raided" the mid-west each year to recruit enough teachers to complete class rosters.

IT'S OFFICIAL NOW—Sheriff's Captain John F. Duffy, left, formally opened his San Diego campaign headquarters for Sheriff last week with ribbon-cutting ceremonies.

Helping the 17-year veteran of the Sheriff's Department are his wife Dorothy, son John and daughter Diane. More than 600 persons attended.

Duffy Opens First of 6 Offices

SAN DIEGO—Sheriff's Captain John F. Duffy formally opened his campaign headquarters last week and told the more than 600 supporters attending that he feels he has the confidence of most of the employees in the Sheriff's Department in his bid to become San Diego County's next sheriff.

"There are many kinds of support a candidate receives," Duffy said, "but it is exceptionally rewarding to have the respect and backing of your fellow workers."

Duffy, a 17-year veteran of the Department, said he has taken a two-month leave of absence from his duties as commander of the county jail.

"All kinds of people from everywhere in this county are working for this campaign," Duffy said. "They deserve a fulltime candidate to insure victory in June."

Duffy and seven others will appear on the June 2 primary election ballot. The two top vote getters will face off in November unless one candidate receives a majority of the votes in June.

Duffy, who has worked in every division of the sheriff's department, said drug abuse continues to be the county's chief law enforcement problem. He singled out special attention to clamping down on drug peddlers as one of his chief objectives. He also said more dialogue is needed between law officers and youth in an attempt to halt drug abuses. Duffy said that in addition to the main headquarters at Fourth and "A" Streets in San Diego, campaign offices will be opened in Chula Vista, Encinitas, Vista, El Cajon and Lemon Grove within the next few weeks.

2,600 Units Planned In La Jolla Complex

Construction is scheduled to start within 60 days on the first phase of La Jolla Village, a $150 million residential-commercial development planned on a 281-acre site south of the University of California at San Diego campus.

La Jolla Village executive officer Robert H. Biron said the project will be the largest of its kind to be built near-term in San Diego county. He said plans call for completion by late 1970 of some units of the Village's first 700 apartment units, with work valued at $10 million. Biron said the development represents a joint venture between Land Resources Corp. of Philadelphia and the Donald L. Biron Co., a wholly-owned subsidiary of International Paper Co.

He said La Jolla Village, which represents an integral part of the university community master plan as well as the emerging north city complex of metropolitan San Diego, will provide 6,500 apartment units.

Of these, Biron said 2,600 will be apartment units on a 27-acre site, 2,500 garden apartments on a 70-acre site, 800 townhouses on 41 acres and 250 to 300 student apartments.

The 281-acre site is bounded by Interstate 5 on the east, Gilman drive on the west, and La Jolla Village drive on the north. It is located south of the UCSD medical school campus and the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Jess Unruh Raps Income Tax System

Candidate for Governor Jess Unruh last week branded state and federal income tax laws "a snakepit of confusion that confounds the average taxpayer and corrupts even many concerned citizens."

Unruh proposed returning to the single-page tax return, eliminating all tax loopholes that "make the rich richer and the rest of us perplexed."

Keynote speaker at the California State Employees Association's annual Institute on Government, Unruh told the state workers, "The spiraling up this year on almost every street corner of companies offering to help the harried taxpayer is proof that our income tax returns have become complete gobbledygook to the average man."

"Even some tax accountants admit they have trouble figuring out procedures and forms that change every year."

"There should be a graduated tax on all income a person earns from whatever source. Beyond this basic equity, I would work to close all loopholes that keep taxes from being fairly applied," Unruh declared.

"This would drastically cut the taxes most of us pay and would end the game of 'find the loophole' played every April 15th," he said.

D'Adamo Charges County Clerk Is Being Overpaid

Ralph D'Adamo, a beauty shop proprietor, said Thursday that Bud James, the present County Clerk, has been receiving excess compensation of $1,200 a year since 1962.

D'Adamo, seeking to unseat James for the post held by James for 16 years.

D'Adamo charges that James was being paid for the extra duties of Court Administrator until 1962. At that time the duties were transferred but James' salary was not reduced. Thus, he said, James is receiving money for work not performed.

He also charges James with absenteeism. On more than 200 occasions James gave to various community fund-raising affairs, he said.

He also points out that minority groups employed by the County Clerk represent only 1 1/2 per cent of his work force. The rate is about 3 per cent in other departments, he averred.

D'Adamo sees a "political dynasty" in holding the office in the James family for over 40 years. James' father held the office previously.

D'Adamo has been a resident in San Diego for 21 years and has been self-employed for 17 years. He lives in Clairemont.

School District Sets May 4 For Registration

Registration of children who will attend kindergarten next fall in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District will start Monday, May 4, according to Dr. David Pascoe, associate superintendent.

Proof of the child's birthdate must be provided at the time of registration. The California State Education Code requires that a child "shall be four years and nine months of age on or before September 1 or the current school year" in order to enter kindergarten.

This means a child must be five years old on or before December 2, 1970, Pascoe said.

The contest will be staged during the 18th Annual Eastern San Diego County Fair May 27 through 31 at Gillespie Field.

Animal Actors Nominated For Annual Patsy Awards

Two dozen of the nation's top animal "actors" have been nominated for honors in The American Humane Association's (AHA) 20th annual Patsy Awards set for Hollywood in June.

The awards are for Picture Animal Top Star of the Year and Performing Animal Television Star of the Year. Categories include: best motion picture performance; best continuing television performance; best single television performance; and best performance in a TV commercial. Motion picture, television and pet writers throughout the United States are balloting on final winners.

Nominees for Patsy honors include 8 dogs, 4 chimps, 2 bears, a raccoon, cat, pig, goose, seal, raven, cougar, tiger and camel.

To be eligible for nomination, animals must have appeared in a production supervised by AHA. Of the some 22,000 animals appearing on the motion picture or television screen last year, only a few had "starring" roles. Most, including horses and cattle, were used primarily for scene setting atmosphere or background.

The Patsy Awards honor animal trainers, studios, producers and directors for meeting AHA's high humane standards in the handling, care and presentation of animals in film and TV work. AHA has supervised filmed animal action since 1940.

Last year's winners were Albarado, the horse in Disney's film, "The Horse in the Gray Flannel Suit," and Arnold, the pig in the "Green Acres" television series. A second TV award went to Timmy, the chimp, for a single appearance on the "Beverly Hillbillies." The TV commercial award went to a cougar, Chauncey, in a film produced for the Ford Motor Co.

The first Patsy Award was presented in 1950 to Francis,

UCSD Drama Department Sets Two Plays For May

The Drama Department at the University of California, San Diego, will open its second season with two plays, "Midsummer Night's Dream" and "Caucasian Chalk Circle," presented in repertory on the campus beginning May 1.

Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," directed by Eric Christmas, will open Friday, May 1, and continue May 3, 5, 14, 16, 18, 23 and 25. "Caucasian Chalk Circle," by Bertolt Brecht and directed by Tom McCorry, will open Saturday, May 2, and continue May 4, 13, 15, 17, 22 and 24.

All performances begin at 8:00 p.m. in the 125-seat theater in Building 26, Matthews Campus. Tickets are $2.00 for general admission and $1.00 for students. Reservations may be made by calling the UCSD Box Office at 453-6151.

A group of 23 undergraduate students, most with no previous theater or drama experience, have been dual cast in the two plays. Only seven members of the cast took part in UCSD's premiere production, "Marat/Sade," last year. In addition, there is a technical crew of five students who are handling lighting, sound and properties. Several members of the cast have also been involved in building sets and making costumes.

Eric Christmas, Senior Lecturer in the Department of Drama, said the two plays were chosen because they allow the students to show a wide range in terms of their work.

"Caucasian Chalk Circle" is a play of thought, it challenges the mind," Christmas said. "It is a play in which order is questioned and conventional shapes are looked at in new perspectives."

"Midsummer Night's Dream" is a play of dream: a play of heart and feeling," he said. "Brecht's play is epic theater, almost symphonic; Shakespeare's is romantic theater, much lighter," Christmas said.

"Midsummer Night's Dream" is full of color. It casts a spell and is filled with air and moonlight. 'Caucasian Chalk Circle' is a play of the earth and is built around strong earth colors," he said.

Christmas said "Midsummer Night's Dream" would be presented in a very light-hearted manner and in a "sort of modern dress."

"I think we should let Shakespeare speak to this age as much as to any other," he said.
